

My name is Thomas Haviland. I was born in Missoula, Montana on January 5, 1985. I went to school in Missoula. I have a college degree in Fire Rescue. In January, 2003 I achieved the rank of Eagle Scout in the Boy Scouts, which is the highest rank you can get in the scouts. I started firefighting in 2003 when I was 18 in Lincoln, Montana. I got my EMT through the Lincoln Volunteer Ambulance. I came to Frenchtown in October, 2008 to be a resident firefighter and have been here ever since. Now I am a paid firefighter with Frenchtown Rural Fire District. I like to hunt, fish, hike, shoot and anything in the outdoors.
